

DEMOCRATS DELAY SENATE

Tax Reduction Drive Is Begun In New Congress

Bill Presented That Would Grant 20 Per Cent Reduction To Individuals

REP. KNUTSON IS AUTHOR OF BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The Republican tax reduction drive gathered steam today with a bill to grant a 20 percent reduction to individual taxpayers formally before the house of representatives.

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., chairman of the house ways and means committee, introduced the measure before April 1, and said it would apply to all incomes earned during 1947.

Will Delay Hearings
Knutson declared that the business of organizing house committees would delay ways and means committee hearings on the bill. Another cause for delay is the necessity for the senate and house committees to agree on a 1947 ceiling on government spending, an event which is planned for late next week or early the following week.

The Knutson measure contains two modifications from the flat 20 per cent "across-the-board" reduction promised by Republicans during the recent election campaigns. It would grant an additional $500 personal exemption for taxpayers over 65 years of age, and would allow only a 10.5 per cent reduction on that portion of individual income in excess of approximately $300,000 annually.

Colin Stann, congressional tax expert, estimated that the measure would cost the federal government between 3.3 and 3.4 billion dollars at current national income payment levels.

Knutson asserted however that "I take the position that there will be no loss." He said the reductions would place more spending power in the hands of purchasers, which would be reflected in a higher level of business and increased tax returns to government.

Knutson said that hearings before (Continued on Page Two)

PA NEW OBSERVES

Due to the fact that some mechanical replacements are being made in The News plant over the week end, this issue of The News was published at noon today.

Morgan J. Jones of 1301 Wilmington avenue, states he has been keeping a daily diary since April 1, 1897. This is the year Mr. Jones commenced teaching school for three years, prior to attending Ohio Northern University, where he graduated in Civil Engineering. He is head draftsman with the Penna. Railroad Company here, and an employee since 1902.

Pa New noted that it is possible to walk on the diagonal paths through the Diamond now. The barricades that protected the Christmas trees have been removed.

Style note among the grade school lasses: long, long, tailed stockings in bright colors, finished off with a big fat tassel in a contrasting color.

Two sets of trucks traveling tandem, went through the city last night heavily covered with snow and ice. Pa New noted, they must have come from some point west where a heavy snow storm had occurred.

Pa New noted last night that the traps set in the Mahoning river near the bridge leading to Mt. Jackson have been completely covered with water. The rivers are high since the rains of a few days ago.

Traffic Accidents And Fatalities Mount In '46 In Lawrence County

There were more accidents, more people killed and also more persons injured in 1946 than in 1945, in the rural districts of Lawrence county, according to state police stationed in New Castle.

Here are the statistics:
Accidents in 1945, 179; in 1946, 227.
Persons injured in 1945, 183; in 1946, 203.

Fatalities in 1945, 8; in 1946, 10.

Thus it will be learned that in comparison, there were 48 more accidents, 20 more persons hurt and two more killed.

Main Causes
The main causes for the accidents, according to the state police here, were:

1—Operating a motor vehicle too fast for road conditions.

Most of the accidents occurred between 4 and 6 p. m.

Largest number of accidents occurred during the month of December, and the least during March, in 1946.

Ohio State Coed Is Back Home

Ex-Convict Who Was With Her To Be Returned To Columbus Today

MAN ARRESTED IN CLEVELAND

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 4.—(INS)—A 42-year-old ex-convict was to be returned to Columbus today for questioning in the two-day disappearance of a pretty 20-year-old Ohio State University coed.

Mary Virginia Kimberly, who disappeared in the company of the ex-convict on New Year's Day, returned to her suburban Upper Arlington home late yesterday. She told her father "Oh Dad, it was awful."

A few hours later, Cleveland police arrested Robert Haine Hemming in a downtown hotel. He is charged under a "suspicious person" warrant filed by Ohio State University Prof. Emerson E. Kimberly, the girl's father.

Intended Getting Married
Hemming was reported to have told Cleveland detectives that he and Miss Kimberly spent Thursday night in Lorain and then hitchhiked to Cleveland. He said they had intended getting married but that when he found there was a five-day waiting requirement under Ohio law, it was decided to defer the marriage.

Suburban Upper Arlington police left for Cleveland last night to return Hemming to Columbus on the "suspicious person" warrant.

The pretty, auburn-haired coed's father told newsmen that his daughter had returned to Columbus from Cleveland by train after Hemming had taken her to the station. He quoted his daughter as saying:

The mother of the girl, although she refused to answer questions as to the circumstances under which Mary Virginia left with Hemming, declared:

Forced to Leave
"She did not leave of her own volition. She has been unharmed." The girl was placed under a physician's care a short time after she stumbled in the rear door of the (Continued on Page Two)

Will Attempt To Remove Screw From Boys' Lung

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The screw was two down and one to go today for physicians at the Bronchoscopic Clinic of Temple University hospital, in Philadelphia.

This week, specialists removed a nail from the lung of a 16-year-old Australian girl and a pin from the lung of a three-year-old child from Alabama. Within a few days, they will attempt to remove a screw from the lung of John Turner, four, of Christchurch, New Zealand.

The pin was taken from little Elizabeth Thomas, of Opelika, Ala., less than five hours after she arrived in Philadelphia aboard an army plane. Hospital attaches said she will be permitted to go home in a few days.

Shirley Skinner, 16, of Melbourne, Australia, traveled 11,000 miles to the clinic for the removal of a nail that she had swallowed 14 years earlier.

When irritation from the nail increased recently, Melbourne citizens and government officials helped to finance the trip to the Quaker City.

The Turner child left his home Wednesday, and is expected in San Francisco today.

Martin Outlines Aims Of GOP In Congress Speech

New House Speaker Says Republican Party Promises Will Be Fulfilled

DISCUSSES CHIEF PROBLEMS OF U. S.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Speaker of the House Joseph Martin on Friday called on American citizens regardless of party affiliations to cooperate with the Republican "in an honest effort" to save the United States from "ruin and destruction by internal economic suicide."

Martin's plea, delivered especially to House Democrats and the other branches of government, was made in outlining the aims of the Republican party in an address to the opening House session of the 80th Congress.

Will Fulfill Promises
The Massachusetts Republican, shortly after being elected the first GOP speaker since 1930, declared that his party's promise to legislate reductions in taxes and government spending "shall be fulfilled."

Touching on foreign affairs, Martin said "there is danger the war-stricken nations may be led to rely too much on the United States, and try too little to help themselves."

Martin asserted that "only a strong, sound, solvent free America can help to rescue the world," and added:

"We call upon every section, and every class of good Americans to stand with us for an adequate, efficient national defense, while we endeavor to persuade the rest of the world to adopt a practical formula for disarmament, and the outlawing of war."

On the labor question, the new speaker declared that "we must find a formula and a basis upon which disagreements between labor and management can be settled justly and effectively without stoppage of production." He added:

"Such a basis and formula can (Continued on Page Two)

ROYAL ENGAGEMENT RAPED BY DAILY WORKER NEWSPAPER

LONDON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The London Daily Worker, organ of the British Communist party, today editorially attacked the forthcoming engagement of Princess Elizabeth to Prince Philip of Greece.

The newspaper declared that Philip, an officer in the Royal British Navy, was related to "Greek Fascist-Royalists."

In a page one news story the Daily Worker declared that the British Labor government hopes to "sell" the engagement to the people as a true love match.

Party Lineup As 80th Congress Convenes

Republicans and Democrats for 99 years have struggled for control of the government, and with the opening of the 80th Congress, a new shift again takes place. After 14 years of unbroken Democratic control, the Republicans take over the reins in Congress, holding a clear majority in both houses. There is one American Labor Party representative in the House.

Huge Waves Are Striking Hawaii

One Report Says Ten-Foot Waves Are Battering Some Of Islands

NO NEW TIDAL WAVE INDICATED

HONOLULU, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Waves—reported to have reached the tidal proportions of ten feet—battered the Hawaiian Islands early today.

The U. S. Coast Guard said the waves were of "dangerous proportions" but announced a survey indicated there was no danger of another tidal disaster such as swept the islands last April.

Homes in some coastal areas were evacuated when the waves threatened, but little damage was reported.

In a report on the sea disturbance, Capt. J. W. Ryssy, Coast Guard duty officer, said:

Report Ten-Foot Waves
"We had a report of ten-foot waves off the north point of Oahu at Kaena Point.

"Kaena Point was the first area damaged by the April 1 tidal waves. "Water at Lanikai reached the floors of houses and people were evacuating to higher ground. We do not think this is a tidal wave but believe it's due to bad weather conditions."

Captain Ryssy said "some damage" was done to the breakwater at Kahului Point on Maui Island and that a large ship had broken from its moorings.

The Coast Guard officer said waves swept over the breakwater at Hilo on Hawaii Island, Hilo bore the brunt of the April tidal waves and more than a hundred lives were lost there.

Captain Ryssy quieted fears of a recurrence of this disaster by saying:

"Our conclusion and that of the Coast and Geodetic Survey indicates no seismic disturbance."

The waves came as the climax of a week of bad weather during which Hawaii has been gripped by the coldest temperatures in ten years.

AUTHOR BEATEN BY THREE MEN

John Roy Carlson Attacked By Three Men On Street In Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(INS)—John Roy Carlson, author of "Under Cover" and "The Plotters" reported to police today he had been attacked by three men in Brooklyn.

Carlson said he was beaten as he was walking near the Brooklyn Academy of Music after he had attended a meeting of an organization known as Women for the United States of America.

In making the police complaint Carlson gave his legal name as Arthur A. Derounian.

He told police the men attacked him with little warning and beat him with their fists. He was treated by Dr. Anthony Colombo at Holy Family hospital for contusions.

Carlson's books are exposés of alleged subversive groups in this country including the Communists and Fascists.

Seek To Perform Autopsy On Remains Of Aged Man Who Said He Never Slept

Herpin who died yesterday at Mercer hospital entered the institution three days ago. Attendants said he had not slept while in the hospital as far as they could establish.

The aged man lived alone in a shack made of packing boxes and

More Women Lose Locks Of Hair In Washington

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The number of victims claimed by Jack-the-Snapper rose to eleven today after Washington's amateur barber snipped the locks of three more women.

In the space of five hours, the hair band clipped the tresses of a 12-year-old girl, a 37-year-old mother and a 17-year-old former Navy department worker.

Latest to sit in Jack's "chair" were Mrs. Betty Mae Southward, mother of a 15-year-old girl, who reported feeling a tug at her dark hair as she was riding aboard a streetcar last evening.

Saw Tall Young Man
Arriving home, Mrs. Southward discovered four inches hacked from her page-boy bob. Mrs. Southward said that at the time she felt the tug on her hair she turned to see a tall, handsome young man hurriedly leave the seat behind her.

At about the same time, Alice Payne, 17-year-old brunette daughter of Mrs. Eulaine A. Paynes, returned from a downtown movie and discovered she had been shorn.

Some five hours earlier, Marie Uden, 12, daughter of Mrs. Inez Uden, reached home from a trip downtown to find that a long, deep swath had been cut from her chestnut locks, the shearing apparently having taken place on a crowded bus.

Salary Raises At Court House

Graduated Increases Are Granted To Appointed Aides By Salary Board

Increases in salaries of appointed aides in the court house, ranging from 5 per cent to 10 per cent have been granted by the salary board after meeting with the heads of the various departments.

The salary board is composed of the three county commissioners and the county treasurer, plus the head of each department as his particular department is under discussion. The increases apply only to those receiving less than $200 per month.

Clerks in the bracket under $125 per month get 10 per cent increase. From $125 to $150 the increase is seven per cent. From $150 to $200 the increase is five per cent.

In former years the salary board has granted a lump sum increase to each department head to be distributed as he saw fit. This year the raise is "across the board" with the board ending at the $200 mark. Some dissatisfaction was expressed by the relative few in the $200 class that they had not been included in the increases.

CLAIMS MUELLER ILLEGALLY HOLDS UNION LEADERSHIP

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4.—(INS)—An attorney for the Duquesne Light company today contended that George L. Mueller, leader of last fall's 27-day power strike in Pittsburgh, is illegally holding the presidency of the firm's independent employees' union.

Nicholas Unkovic challenged the legality of a three-year extension of Mueller's term, asserting the vote to extend it was 795 to 541. He asserted the union's by-laws require a two-thirds majority for such extensions.

Mueller was elected to a one-year term in November, 1945, and later voted the three-year extension.

Filibuster Over Bilbo Delaying Senate Action

New Senators Not Yet Seated—All Precedents Are Being Shattered

G. O. P. TAKES OVER CONTROL OF HOUSE

By WILLIAM THEIS (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—A Democratic filibuster in the senate against the barring of Sen. Theodore Bilbo (D) Miss., today blocked the Republicans temporarily from assuming full control of the 80th congress.

The Bilbo affair shattered all precedents by keeping the ruling party out of power in the senate.

The Democrats remained in technical control, 31 to 29, due to their numerical superiority among hold-over senators. A Democrat, Secretary Leslie Biffle, presided.

Only One New Senator Seated
Out of 37 newly elected senators only one—Baldwin (R) Conn.—was seated before the Bilbo battle began.

The senate twice voted to bar Bilbo from being sworn in for a third six-year term. On one vote ten Democrats voted against Bilbo; on the other, eleven. There were a few shifts among the Democrats with the result that 12 voted against him on one of the other votes.

In retaliation, a determined group of Bilbo's Democratic friends filibustered to block Republican organization of the senate. They prevented the swearing in of all other newly-elected senators. As a result, the Republicans have not yet taken over control of the senate.

G. O. P. Takes Over House
There was no untoward incident as the GOP took over control of the house. Rep. Joseph Martin, Massachusetts, was elected speaker. He pledged tax reductions and control of labor legislation. A bill was promptly introduced to slash income taxes by 20 per cent.

In the senate, Republican leaders forced, a Saturday session. They threatened to force a continuous day and night session of the senate starting Monday if Bilbo's friends do not haul up the white flag.

Official parliamentarians scoffed at some Republican claims that the senate was "unorganized" and that President Truman might be forced to postpone his Monday address to congress on the State of the Union. They asserted the senate could vote at any time to join the house to (Continued on Page Two)

Auto Production Lower This Week

DETROIT, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Automotive production in the United States and Canada took another slump this week as a result of inventories and holiday absenteeism.

Ward's reports announced today that 56,506 units were produced this week compared to 67,070 turned out last week.

The automotive statistical report predicts U. S. production may turn out approximately 1,215,310 cars and trucks in the first three months of the new year.

Small Fire Today In Grocery Store

City firemen were called to the Michael Letzko grocery, 3 West Long avenue, at 5:28 o'clock this morning by an alarm from box 83. It was that some wood underneath the stairs had caught fire, causing damage of around $75, Assistant Fire Chief W. H. Hawk reported.

The seed man's catalogue is in, the season is complete; I now can settle back for what I call a reading time. I see the spuds and radishes all pictured in their bloom, and onions, so the booklet says, will need a lot of room. Tomatoes (if I buy their seed) are big as wheels, about, and parsnips will need plenty space, if I but set them out. And so, while winter has his reign, I read the book, and say, I'm all pepped up for spring and seeds—it's thirty-one today.

Nations Prepare To Begin Battle On Vital Issues

Control Of Atomic Energy, Disarmament Major Problems Facing UN Organization

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Informal consultations among the principal security council delegates underlined preparations today for the battle with basic global problems to begin in the next few days.

On Monday or Tuesday the council, sitting for the first time in 1947, will be confirmed immediately on its agenda with at least two of the various fundamental issues demanding a solution before "peace in our time" can be given firm anchor.

The first and most controversial at the moment is the question of atomic energy control, which includes the atomic bomb. The second embraces general universal disarmament and calls for a system of policing and international supervision.

Other major problems of global stature awaiting consideration by the world's most powerful tribunal are Balkan unrest, trusteeship of Pacific islands, and disputes between nations in one corner of the world or another requiring careful doctoring and healing.

The forthcoming session will present three new faces at the horseshoe pine table. There are Belgium, Syria, and Colombia. The three nations which withdrew under the rotating arrangement were Egypt, Mexico and The Netherlands.

Diplomatic observers, anxiously scanning the regrouped council for the veto dispute in the Baruch atomic control plan, are forecasting no change.

Dr. Zuleika Angel, who will represent Colombia, already has gone on record with a public statement that violators of the atomic code must be punished without being left legal loopholes such as the veto.

Belgium and Syria, competent observers believe, are of the same frame of mind as demonstrated through their spokesmen in the past. Predictions are that when the showdown vote on banning the veto on punishment comes in the security council, ten nations again will vote affirmatively.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Secretary Andrei A. Gromyko and Polish delegate Dr. Oscar Lange, in speeches before both the atomic energy commission and the security council, foreshadowed a continued battle for the retention of the veto.

The council is heading also into a volatile controversy expected to flare up between the United States and Russia as to whether atomic energy control or world disarmament is to have priority consideration.

Russia has placed on the agenda a motion calling for appointment of an eleven-nation commission to draw up disarmament plans within three months.

The United States has placed a resolution on the same agenda asking that top priority be given the atomic energy commission's report, which includes the vetoes Baruch inspection and control plan.

Tuesday's luncheon meeting program at 12:15 o'clock in The Castle, will consist of a splendid education film, lasting 38 minutes, which is furnished by the United States Steel Corporation, entitled, "Steelman's Servant".

Kimberly home. She was reported in good physical condition although suffering from nervous shock.

The father said her clothing was the same she wore on the day of her disappearance. The girl told her father she had attempted to escape from Hemming yesterday morning in Cleveland but that he had forced her back into his automobile.

"He then took her to the train and put her on it," Professor Kimberly asserted.

Kimberly also asserted that his daughter had told him she had been drugged and that she did not remember anything of what had happened since New Year's Day. Hemming had called for the girl on the pretext that he was giving a surprise party for his own daughter, a close friend of Mary Virginia's.

Mrs. Kimberly said that charges "most assuredly will be filed—whatever charges are appropriate."

Hemming had served several prior terms on automobile theft and had check charges. He returned to Columbus from California only three weeks ago.

TO CLAMP PARIS SHOPS IF PRICES ARE NOT SLASHED

PARIS, Jan. 4.—(INS)—French prefects of police were empowered today to close the shops of merchants who fail to comply with Premier Leon Blum's decree of a general five per cent price reduction.

The 74-year-old premier, addressing the prefects from all of France, said some merchants exceeded the government requirement by cutting prices 10 per cent.

The executive committee of the Confederation of Labor voted enthusiastic support of the price depression campaign and called on local unions to check on merchants charging excessive amounts.

never be found until both sides are ready to achieving their fair responsibility for contracts; to cooperate in achieving increased production, lower prices, and fair profits, without decreasing wages or lengthening work hours."

Martin declared that "it is not the intention of the Republicans in this Congress blindly and wildly to slash here and there" in carrying out their program of government economy and reduced taxes. But he added that GOP studies "have shown governmental costs can be reduced and we intend to reduce them."

He declared that high taxes are an obstacle to American business and asserted that "we intend to reduce tax rates wherever, and as promptly as it is feasible to do so."

Takes Firm Stand

Martin took a firm stand against subversive influences in the Federal government. He declared:

"There is no room in the government of the United States for any who prefer the communistic system, or any other form of absolutism, to our American system. Those who do not believe in the way of life which have made us the greatest nation of all time should not be permitted to occupy positions of trust or power in the American government. They should be— they must be removed."

Martin spoke several thinly-veiled criticisms of the acts of the Democratic administrations which have preceded the 80th Congress.

He declared that Republicans are conscious of their responsibilities as they seek readjustments from "war conditions of deficit spending, waste, and the 'don't count-the-cost' policy."

He called for cooperation "of every man and woman in this nation" to help the Republicans "pull our beloved country out of the economic bog into which mistaken policies, and two wars on two oceans, have plunged us."

Castigates Price Control

Martin severely castigated the price control practices of his Democratic predecessors, with the observation that:

"No sound economist can deny, nor does deny, that competition is a better regulator of prices and quality than all the governmental bureaus and departmental regulations which could be organized or devised."

"Price levels mean nothing if people cannot get fuel to warm them, food to sustain them, homes to shelter them, and fabrics to clothe them. Wage increases can mean nothing if they are to be offset by weeks of idleness in strikes, and by such increased costs and prices as will rob wage earners and the salaried people, the farmers, and the fixed income-group alike, of purchasing power through a reduced exchange value of the dollar."

Martin held out high hope for the future of the United States under a free form of government, with the benefits of the four freedoms which he endorsed.

Alluding to the miracles of the American war effort, he asserted: "An American which can achieve that miracle in war can accomplish even greater miracles in peace."

"We can attain full production, lower prices, and prosperity in this nation."

hear Mr. Truman speak on Monday. Senate parliamentarian, Charles L. Watkins, said:

"The senate is a continuing body. It is already organized. It now has sixty members and a quorum of 31 of them can do as much business as 49 of the usual 96."

Southern Democrats fighting for immediate seating of Bilbo blocked the swearing in of 22 Republicans and 14 Democrats.

Democrats and Republicans both called meetings this morning to plan future strategy.

"The man" from Mississippi, veteran of many a political battle, is accused in two committee reports of racial intimidation and of "improperly using" his senatorship for "personal gain" from war contractors.

New Castle 1798-1948

The idea suggested by J. C. Wachtman, executive vice president of the Greater New Castle Association, that New Castle prepare for a sesqui-centennial in 1948 is an idea that is sound. Somehow we have the idea that the shade of John Carlyle Stewart, the founder of New Castle, agrees with it also.

Not that a sesqui-centennial offers opportunity for much personal gain to any of us. Rather it would entail a lot of spade work, a lot of intelligent direction, and a lot of supervision and detail work when it finally arrived.

But with all the hard work it would entail it seems to us to be worth it. You're only 150 years old once and a little celebrating is certainly in order.

It's a chance to tell the world about New Castle, a reason for inviting the outside world to visit us, a chance for fun and frolic and dancing in the streets.

Our idea of the manner in which a sesqui-centennial should be handled would be to have the GNCA call together a group of representative citizens, organize a Sesqui-Centennial Commission or Committee and then finance it with Sesqui-Centennial bonds, which would be in the nature of contributions to a civic movement.

Old John Carlyle Stewart would be surprised if he could return and see what he started. And as the 150th anniversary of his founding of the city draws closer we are in accord with the idea of celebrating it.

If it is going to be done, now is not a minute too soon to get under way.

Sword Of Damocles

Edward Lamb, the Toledo attorney who started the parade of portal-to-portal pay suits that threaten to cost employers billions of dollars, has some advice for lawyers representing unions in such actions.
He says they should not specify "fabulous and reckless sums" when they sue because they are likely to "frighten industry and may stir Congress to adopt restrictive legislation."

His counsel, though shrewd, comes a little late. Fabulous and reckless sums have already been named in a number of these suits. Business and industry are already frightened, with good reason. Members of Congress are now searching for some legislative formula that will undo, or at least limit, the damage done by the Supreme Court when it found for Mr. Lamb's client in the Mt. Clemens Pottery company case.

Mr. Lamb certainly would not contend that the concern shown by industrial and political leaders over effects of the court's ruling is unjustified or exaggerated. What the court did, he says himself, was to hand down "the biggest and most important decision" it ever made. As that is his estimate, he must have a lively conception of how far-reaching the consequences of it are likely to be.

It is true, as he says, that the decision did nothing more than "define a work-week." But it defined a work-week in a way that is not only far different from definitions accepted in many industries, by long custom, but in a way Congress never intended when it enacted what is termed the Fair Labor Standard Act. The result is to suspend a sword of Damocles over countless employers. What the effects will eventually be, in terms of higher labor costs, is still uncertain—at a time when there are more than enough uncertainties.

Irreconcilable

It may or may not be significant but it is at least interesting that within a period of 24 hours Soviet Russia made an insistent demand for immediate disarmament of nations and was bluntly accused by a House committee of rearming itself with the products of German plants in the Russian-controlled zone. Somehow or other the two incidents do not fit into any pattern which intelligent peoples can accept.

The American charges, it may be noted, do not come from some individual representative who might be sounding off for political effect.
They are the measured words to be found in the unanimously approved report of a special committee on postwar economic policy and planning.
That so serious an indictment would have been laid without factual evidence to support it is simply incredible, especially at a time when every care is being taken by responsible government officials to say or do nothing which will make more difficult the task of achieving international co-operation for world-wide peace.

It must be concluded, then, that the House committee has indeed uncovered flagrant violations by Russia of the Potsdam agreement.
Americans will feel, as the committee feels, that this nation should not yield to the Soviet, without adequate guarantees, the "most secret" processes in the fields of radar, electronics, communications, chemistry, etc., which are basic in the superiority of American defense.

So long as Russia uses German factories to turn out munitions for herself, instead of goods badly needed by the German people, she will remain under the suspicion that her pleas for universal disarmament are both meaningless and insincere.

France And The Saar

French ambition to acquire the Saarland after World War I was thwarted after fifteen years of occupation by a plebiscite which returned the region to Germany. Now the French, again occupying the rich industrial and mining area, are looking toward another possible plebiscite.

In line with their policy of winning over the Saarlanders this time,
Paris recently ordered increased food rations instituted—much higher than in the remainder of the French-occupied zone. The French have released all Saarland prisoners of war. Now an even more visible line of demarcation has been set up in the form of a customs barrier between the Saar and the remainder of Germany.

Lieut. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American deputy military governor, charges that the French move is "an unilateral action which was not presented to the Allied control council." But no objections came from the British foreign office, where a spokesman asserted that the customs line was broached informally by the French at the recent foreign ministers' meeting in New York. No Moscow reaction is recorded, but not long ago the Soviet-controlled Berlin Zeitung accused the French of "preparing to annex the Saar."

The London Daily Express terms the move the "first postwar coup." Whatever its immediate implications, it must be regarded as a step in the opposite direction from the economic and federally-united Germany which Secretary Byrnes supports. Paris apparently is digging in for the bargaining over Germany which will take place at the Allied conference at Moscow in March.

Geologists say there is enough coal left in the earth to last the world for several million years. But we doubt whether the world will use coal that long.

WASHINGTON CALLING by MARQUIS CHILDS

Many Working To Stop Discrimination

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4. — The other day in Capetown, South Africa, that shrewd, wily, indomitable old man, Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts, made two speeches. One was for world consumption. The other, to a much smaller, private audience, was for home consumption.

To his world audience, Prime Minister Smuts complained in dignified tones about the action of the United Nations assembly in voting approval of a resolution covering a case of racial discrimination in the Union of South Africa. Smuts declared that the resolution should have been referred to the International Court of Justice, which would certainly have found that the assembly had no jurisdiction.

For Home Consumption

For home consumption, Smuts
said something quite different. He said that he knew the voters of South Africa stood solidly behind him in his refusal to make an accession to racial equality. In 20 years, said Smuts, the whole world will face the problem of white versus color which now confronts South Africa.

The racial resolution adopted by the UN assembly has cast a long shadow. In the perspective of the future, it may seem to have been the most important step taken by the new congress of nations.

Here is what lies behind that resolution. In the Union of South Africa are some 220,000 Indians, most of them Hindus. They, or their fathers and mothers before them, came from India as coolies.
Of the untouchable caste, they believed they might somewhat better their lot. Such have indeed become prosperous and even wealthy.

No Civil Rights

But except for a very small minority who come under an early law, they have no civil rights whatsoever. They cannot vote. They can own property only in certain segregated areas. This has given rise to ever-increasing agitation.
The cry of "taxation without representation" out of our own past, re-sounds anew.

The resolution before the assembly, introduced by the delegation from India, recommended that the Union of South Africa and the government of India get together to work out the problem of the Indian minority. If only by indirection, it was a rebuke to the Union of South Africa.

The United States and Great Britain voted against the resolution on the ground that the UN assembly had no jurisdiction over what was the domestic business of South Africa. But every colored country voiced for the resolution. The Moslem countries of the Middle East voted with the colored countries.

Significant Fact

So did the Soviet Union. That is the significant fact which is certain to have political echoes in every corner of the globe. The USSR's propaganda for racial equality is far and away the most effective weapon in the Soviet propaganda arsenal.

The Russian-haters say this propaganda is meaningless since all races in Russia are equally in subjection. The Russian idolaters point it into pictures of perfection.
The truth lies, in all probability,
somewhere between. But the facts are unimportant so long as millions of oppressed people of color believe that the Soviet Union has established racial equality.

Is Probably Right

Smuts is probably right when he says he has the backing of the voters. There are about 2,000,000 whites and 8,000,000 Negroes in South Africa. The Negroes have about the same status as the Indians. The racial issue tends to submerge even the bitter, long-standing quarrel between Boer and British.

This has profound meaning for us
here in the United States in the new year. We can at least say that ours has not been the die-hard attitude of South Africa. Thousands of Americans in every walk of life are working to end the racial discriminations that exist here.

Southerners with the courage and imagination of Gov. Ellis Arnall of Georgia are striving to end the injustices and inequalities inflicted on the Negroes. Churches throughout the country are striving toward the same end. The National Catholic Welfare conference has taken some significant steps in that direction during the past year.

This will be our answer if, before the bar of world opinion, we are ever faced with racial discrimination. It is not part of the nature of our basic law and conscientious citizens are faithfully and fearlessly working to stop it in practice.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

The Duke and Duchess of Windsor
are two very nice people.

They are simple and polite and not a bit "bigcity." As my friends,
Mrs. Carr, of Charlotte, N. C., calls it.

But, frankly, I am awfully tired of reading about their parties and their dresses and about the Duchess' toast burning in her sumptuous Waldorf-Astoria suite and about the Duke attending the Dutch Treat Club's annual banquet.

We all know, of course, that the Duke abdicated his throne for the "woman I love."

That action of his gripped the heart of every baby-sitter, every chambermaid, every chorus girl—and it gripped my heart, too.

There were many people, however,
who did not agree with the then King.

There were many people who thought that a man with a big job as his, with many millions of people looking up to him as a symbol of duty and responsibility,
should have considered that duty
and responsibility more important than his own love for a woman, no matter how charming and lovely she might be.

However, that is neither here nor there.

He did it and that is that.

But, does not that wonderful romance become a little shabby in the eyes of their many admirers, if the modern Romeo and his Juliet do nothing more with that sacrifice he made than to dance their way through life?

It seems to me that it is about time for the Duke to go to work.

Maybe he is doing something else
besides gallivanting, but if he is,
he certainly has very poor press agents.

The Duke of Windsor has a wonderful personality.

As Prince of Wales he was the best salesman England ever had.
As King he did as good a job as any of their kings and emperors did.
He is now past fifty, surely old enough for a man not to be just a playboy.

But, as I said, maybe he is working at something useful and difficult.

Why not let the world know it?
Why permit himself to appear only
as an idler and party man?

Headwaiters and bellboys at the Waldorf told me that there are no
nicer guests than the Duke and Duchess. They are considerate, unassuming and liberal.

I met the Duke at a luncheon
some time ago and was very much impressed with his personality.

Their romance has become a modern legend. They are spending much time in America.

Why, then, not make it an American legend—a legend of love and work combined?

That is the American way of happiness.

Much happiness to the Duke and his Duchess.

CHILDHOOD'S PACE

Never at the pace I tread,
Never running off ahead,
Eight and six and almost two,
Racing every minute through:
Tussling, mauling, full of glee,
Which is how they ought to be.

Never once at footstep slow,
Always in high gear they go,
Bump speed up and down the stairs,
Bumping tables, toppling chairs,
Pepper, pepper, nothing glass or clay,
Holds one-tenth as much as they!

Seldom find them sitting still:
Childhood holds a constant thrill,
"Sh-sh!" the smiling mother tries,
"Cut it out!" the daddy cries,
But I hope that long "will be"
Ere they settle down like me.

What People Say

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON—Charles Halleck,
new Republican majority leader of the House of Representatives: "We are not going to do anything to destroy any essential fundamental right of labor, but on the other hand, we are going to do a bit to be done in respect to the relationship between labor and management."

NEW YORK—Myron C. Taylor,
U. S. representative at the Vatican:
"The new hunger wave is sweeping through European countries this winter. It will get worse as the months go by. Italy is one of the chief sufferers, with unemployment and reduced food stocks in the large cities."

WASHINGTON—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation: "The Red scourge of Communism in America is boring its way through our land like a termite. Its power and influence are out of proportion to its membership."

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Now that 1947 has rolled around . . . it's time that we people of this community start some serious thought about a War Memorial . . . last year we expressed the thought that the memorial for this war should be a living war memorial . . . not heroic statues or monumental cannons.

The American Public Works Association report that throughout the nation more and more cities are scrapping plans for memorial statuary and are building community centers as "living" tributes to World War II veterans, living and dead.

In many such communities memorial building, built or planned, are or will be financed directly with tax funds . . . city after city are voting on the idea of bond issues for this purpose.

Such a living war memorial would be a community center whereby each citizen . . . all ages . . . could enrich his leisure hours . . . such a civic center should in the finished stage include a stadium . . . a large field house with facilities for indoor sports, meetings, concerts and recreational activity . . . a baseball diamond . . . or diamonds . . .
tennis courts . . . horseshoe courts and the other popular games that are healthful.

We here in New Castle miss a lot of interesting recreational and educational events because of lack of facilities.

What are your ideas on the subject . . . there has been considerable talk from the direction of the school board in regards to the building of a field house . . . but we think that is out . . . for if they can't raise the teacher salary . . . they haven't the money to spend on an expensive field house.

Personally we feel that the citizens should do something about the idea of a war memorial . . . it's not exactly a cold field to start out in,
we do have some very good baseball contacts . . . what is the opinion of the people.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

IMPROVEMENT IN SCHOOLS NOTED

As I have said in this column
before, I have, during recent years, visited in thousands of classrooms
throughout the United States
reaching practically all of the states.
Compared with what I saw ten or fifteen years earlier, I gained some impressions very encouraging to me. I saw a prevalence of friendliness between teacher and pupils and of learning with a purpose, especially in the elementary grades. Of course, I have also seen what strikes me as considerable waste of time and some badm.

A Growing Trend

In general, however, there has been some stiffening up on discipline and a growing trend among teachers at exercising children in self-control and consideration for the rights of others in their midst.
It is easier to find a classroom today than it was ten years ago,
where one person talks at a time.

Only the other day, in the kindergarten of a school system rated highly "progressive" I saw a teacher having her children, who had just put on their wraps to go home, all sit quietly for a few moments before they were dismissed. In a first grade room of that same school I also saw the children lying on rugs on the floor or tables for a quiet period. Excellent!

More Self-Control

I wish more self-control pre-valled in high school assemblies.
Out of a few thousand I have observed, I would guess that from a half to a third, approach what you and I might call ideal in general decorum. Though I did not keep a record over several years, I am sure this is an improvement over what I observed several years earlier.
I am convinced that more and more teachers who have excelled
at stimulating young children in creative activities are neglecting reading and arithmetic less than they did several years ago. Some of these creative teachers are, indeed, excelling in these basic subjects.

Phonics Are Returning

Almost everywhere phonics are coming back. They never should have disappeared, so is more directing of the young child in his art work returning. Moreover, an increasing number of teachers from the kindergarten through high school are growing conscious of the child's home and family and are trying to be partners with parents
in his best education.

Though discouraged with the indifference of many parents to the school education of their children
and, therefore, to the need of better salaries for holding and securing the best teachers, I am somewhat optimistic about the schools of tomorrow, especially of the teachers and their supervisors. Supervisors have made tremendous strides in recent years. Rarely are they "snooper-snoosers." Usually they are inspirers and builders of teachers.

Succeed at School" may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at

The World and the Mud Puddles

WON'T DO IT AGAIN

Senator Tom Connally of Texas
strikes the crux of the disarmament issue when he expresses the willingness of the United States to join other nations in disarming, but adds, "No disarmament without inspection." There is a plain contradiction in Russia's professed anxiety for world disarmament, while at the same time opposing any international inspection adequate to ascertain if disarmament pacts are being honestly observed. It is the same attitude displayed by Soviet representatives, standing the outlaws
of the atom bomb; they want other nations to outlaw the bomb, but reject any suggestion that the Russian curtain be lifted on possible bomb production in that country.

A strong reason for Senator Connally's statement, of course, is our previous experience with disarmament.
With the highest of motives,
it will be recalled, the Harding administration invited representatives of the other leading powers to a disarmament conference, which deliberated for weeks and finally produced an agreement. One provision of the pact was that providing a naval ratio of 5-5-3 as to the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

Although Great Britain made only perfunctory compliance, and Japan openly flouted the agreement, the United States reduced its naval strength to the point where Humorist Will Rogers described our fleet
as "a couple of row-boats."

The Kellogg-Briand peace pact and the Pacific agreement, stemming from this conference, also proved de-lusive.

We already have reduced our military establishment to far greater proportion than that of our former allies. Although our Navy still is on a strong footing, our Army is far below that of Russia, while Great Britain prepares for a post-war draft. While we have retained the atom bomb, reports from Sweden indicate that Russia is carrying on large-scale experiments with rockets.

Real progress toward disarmament
seems impractical until the United Nations, or at least the major powers, put into operation some effective means of maintaining international peace and security as a substitute for arms. Our frontier settlers did not put away their firearms until laws and courts brought about orderly processes of dealing with threats against the peace. We want disarmament, because we have no plans for conquest or aggression.
But we cannot afford to place the cart before the horse again.

Washington Reports

Two Vermont Senators May Stage Good Fight St. Lawrence Project Is Certain To Bring Clash Navy May Be Searching For Atomic Fuel

(Special to Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—One of the more spectacular clashes of the new 80th Congress may develop between the two Vermont Republican senators, George Aiken and Ralph Flanders.

The fight will materialize if Aiken gets his St. Lawrence seaway proposal as far as the debate stage
in the Senate.

Flanders has disclosed quietly to colleagues that he will fight his fellow Vermonter's seaway plan on both power and transportation grounds. Flanders has let it be known that he is opposed to the project because he does not believe in "subsidized power."

Flanders' position probably will contribute more than any other senator toward killing off whatever chances Aiken's pet project might have had in the Republican-controlled Congress.

Since he is Aiken's fellow Vermonter and because he is ticketed
as "slightly left of center," though not nearly as far left as Aiken, Flanders would give opposition to the seaway something to capitalize on by his position.

Despite his objection to the seaway, Flanders has said that he would favor it so far as power goes
if the project could "pay its way."
He would still object to the idea,
however, on the grounds that it would throw thousands of New England railroad employees out of jobs.

An unexpected result of the Republican victory in the November elections is the change in the plans for Secretary of State Byrnes.
The statesman who has spent a great deal of his time away from Washington in attending international conferences now finds that for strategic reasons he had better stick a little closer to his office.

That was one reason why the coming Moscow conference to draft a peace treaty for Germany was put off until March 10. Pressure to keep Byrnes in Washington might delay the conference even beyond that date.

This pressure also will probably preclude Byrnes' going to Rio de Janeiro for the American foreign ministers' conference if Brazil calls
the meeting in the meantime.

Byrnes' trouble is the unpredictability of the new Congress. He feels that, despite the bipartisan nature of American foreign policy,
some more troublesome senators
may kick the agreement around.

Moreover, there are essential appropriations and Byrnes will want to be on hand to support those for his department when they come before the House appropriations committee.

Rep. Robert C. Slaughter (D) of Missouri has heard that the discovery of the atomic bomb was an offshoot of an attempt to develop atomic energy fuel for battleships.

The Missouriian says it has been reported to him by various sources that the Navy originally began the wartime atomic experiments while searching for a new, cheap fuel.

He explains:
"Navy people believed they could run a battleship for perhaps a month on a small amount of atomic power, if it could be produced."

'Society' Bandit Claimed Captured By N. Y. Police

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Police claimed today to have captured the suave highwayman who specialized in robbing society leaders of their jewels and furs.

He was identified by police as Justin William McCarthy, a former pilot for the British Ministry Aircraft Production.

McCarthy was taken into custody in an apartment near the swank Sutton place area on Manhattan's East Side.

Police said they found some of the proceeds of his robberies and a 45 calibre automatic pistol. They estimate the loot from his robberies will total $100,000.

Socialites including Marguerite Jantze, Mrs. Richard Elmhurst and Elsi Feiniss will be asked to identify McCarthy.

The three women were kidnapped in their own limousine on Park avenue, New Year's Day, forced to sit up their jewels and fur coats and then pushed out of the car, while the bandit drove away.

County Salvage Of Waste Fats In 1946 Totals 43,750 Pounds

Lawrence county housewife checked in nearly fifteen and a half tons of waste fats in 1946. Prices paid for the kitchen grease ranged from four cents to 15 cents per pound.

Collections from restaurants boosted the totals to 43,750 pounds or nearly 22 tons.

March Is Highest
Housewives' 4,194 pounds for the month of March and restaurateurs' 1,546 pounds for the same month, for a total of 6,740 pounds, were the year's highest collections. This was considerably lower than wartime monthly averages.

"December," stated James A. Liebenfelder of Ellwood City whose firm "makes the local collections," is the lowest month with 398 pounds collected from housewives and none from restaurants.

Butchers pay the house wife about 12 cents per pound for her kitchen fats at the present time, Mr. Liebenfelder stated.

Collectors For Year
Following is the collections on waste fats for the year, as of December 31, 1946. The following restaurants are listed as collections from housewives and from restaurants with the prices paid to each.

HUSBAND IN CAMERA-GUN CASE NOT FOUND

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Olga Trapani Rocco, 28, continued to improve in Roosevelt hospital today as police pressed their hunt for her husband, Alphonse, 36, who rigged the camera-gun that shot her.

Mrs. Rocco's left leg was amputated as a desperate measure to save her life.

Detectives continued to grill Pearl Lusk, 19-year-old salesgirl, who was the dupe in the plot. She is held in $10,000 bail as a material witness.

Miss Lusk stuck to her story that she fired the gun, hidden in a Christmas package, in the belief that she was taking the victim's picture.

Chandler allegedly was known as the "Paul Revere" of German broadcasters and was rated second only to "Lord Haw Haw." Best allegedly was billed as "Berlin's Best."

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Traffic fatalities in Pittsburgh in 1946 totaled 83, compared with 1945 toll of 73.

That was the report of Donald M. McNeill, chief traffic engineer for the city, who blamed the rise on greater speeds by drivers the past year adding:

"The faster they go, the harder they hit."
He said the 1946 toll still may rise, as there are a number of persons in hospitals injured in auto accidents before the end of the year.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

(Testimony of Full Salvation of Mrs. Lillie A. Fobes, R. D. 3, Walmo)

At 11 years of age in a revival meeting being held in a country church at Prospect, Pa., I surrendered my life to God after two nights and a day of confessing and forsaking sin. I finally found the Joy of Salvation. Amen! keeps and satisfies the soul. After serving Him for over 60 years Dear young people everywhere take God as your Counsellor and Guide. Make Jesus your constant companion day by day and all the year through. Be faithful in testimony and life, and in joining the church that teaches Heart purity and Holiness. You can then sing, "Take this old world but give me Jesus." It will pay you a thousand-fold for HE saves, sanctifies and keeps. Praise His Name. Eccl. 12:1. U.S. Working On Super Atom Bomb When War Ended

Bomb 1,000 Times More Powerful Than One Dropped Was On U.S. Drawing Boards

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The United States at the end of the war was within two years of developing an atom bomb 1,000 times more powerful than those now in existence.

This was disclosed today by former Assistant Secretary of War John J. McCloy in an article written for the "Infantry Journal," a service publication.

McCloy declared that "we are now at a great crisis in human affairs" because of the loss of forces which could destroy centuries of efforts by a single night's bombardment.

He said that the challenge to the United States is to meet world-wide responsibilities by "backing up with strength an aggressive demand for freedom, tolerance and knowledge."

McCloy declared:

"We were within two years time

at the close of the war of producing a bomb of the hydrogen-helium type, a bomb of approximately 1,000 times the power of the present bomb.

"The rocket and jet propulsion and biological forces, all infinitely more effective than the general public has yet comprehended, can be added to atomic warfare and with them it does not require much imagination to understand how the rate of extermination this planet can be increased."

Martin Is Elected Speaker Of House

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts was elected speaker of the house for the 80th congress Friday by a vote of 244 to 182.

Prolonged applause by the Republican members of the house accompanied the vote.

Martin, the first Republican house speaker since 1930, was proclaimed speaker by House Doorkeeper Ralph Roberts, who conducted the opening minutes of the new house.

The 182 Democrat votes were for Rep. Sam Rayburn, speaker of the last congress and now minority leader.

Seek To Arrange Settlement Plan On Lend-Lease

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The state department revealed that Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith has made a third approach to the Soviet Union to begin talks on settlement of Russia's lend-lease account of over 11 billion dollars.

Smith, on New Year's day, called at the Kremlin and proposed that conversations be undertaken on the matter which had been the subject of two earlier communications by the United States.

A state department spokesman said "it is hoped that arrangements can be made for early negotiations leading to final settlement. No further announcement at this time pending receipt of further information from our embassy in Moscow."

"The proposed negotiations will cover matters requiring settlement under the terms of the Soviet lend-lease agreement of June 11, 1942."

POLLY WANTS A FINGER

The services, which will be held nightly at 7:30 o'clock, will come to a conclusion on Sunday, January 19, according to an announcement from the pastor, Rev. Clifford Duncan. Special music will feature each of the evening meetings.

WATER

Water is a very important part of the body. If all the water were taken out there would not be much left.

Sometimes the dropsy gets damaged in some day so that it cannot take proper care of water.

The tissues sometimes become water-logged. Sometimes some of the large cavities in the body get filled with fluid. This condition is known as dropsy.

There are many causes for dropsy. It may be caused by heart trouble or kidney trouble. It may be due to disease of the liver or to improper diet.

Sometimes the dropsy begins with a puffiness of the eye to the morning. Sometimes it starts with swelling of the ankles in the evening.

Any of these signs should have medical attention promptly. Early treatments sometimes prevents a lot of trouble.

Delegation Asks County Support

Seek To Have Full Time Assistant County Agricultural Agent Located Here

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

If the county commissioners will cooperate in the matter of finance, a full time assistant county agent will be stationed in Lawrence county, a delegation of the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Bureau told the commissioners on Friday.

Headed by L. F. Dayton, county agent, the delegation presented a budget for 1947 for expenses necessary to the office. The budget for 1946 was $2267.44. For 1947 the bureau asks $3500, which will include some permanent improvements.

In the past years State College has had an assistant agent who has worked Beaver and Lawrence counties. If the commissioners here will pay the mileage and travel expenses the assistant will be located in this county. The request was taken under advisement.

SUGGEST MEMBERS

In a letter to the county commissioners, R. J. Schill, secretary of the Ellwood City Chamber of Commerce, suggests the names of three Ellwood City men to serve on the new Lawrence County Housing Authority along with two men from New Castle. The three Ellwood men suggested are P. R. Pike, Ralph Herge and Ken Fox. The two who are to serve from New Castle will be Joseph Leyde and U. A. Leivo. The authority will supervise the Ellwood City housing project.

SENTENCE DAY

Friday was sentence day in the Lawrence county courts with Judge John G. Lamoreaux sitting alone. Four men were sentenced. Three Howard Edwards, Fred Bush and William H. Lewis, pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated and were fined the usual $100 and costs, 30 days in jail, out in three days if the fine and costs are paid. The fourth, Charles E. Watkins, pleaded guilty to aggravated assault and battery and illegally possessing a revolver. He was fined $50 and costs on each count and got six months in the county jail.

Orville Potter. Added to those recorded in 1945 and 1944 the total probably goes over 8000, but it is apparent that about one-third of all men and women who served from Lawrence county have failed to take advantage of the recording privilege.
With two days' business yet to be recorded the office was breaching down the neck of the 8000 instruments it was hoped would be recorded during the year. The total was 7998 and Friday's and Saturday's business will put the total far over 8000.
An indication of the increased activity in the office in fees taken in is seen in a comparison of the 1938 totals and the 1946 totals. In 1938 the office took in $9957.10 in fees of various kinds. In 1946 the total was $20,910.32 plus what comes in today. The year opens the first Monday of January.

County Assessment Causes Disagreement

Some definite action in the increasing of an assessment on the land and buildings of Mike Uigman of Little Beaver township was indicated Friday by the county commissioners following a rather stormy session with Assessor Homer Nicely. Mr. Nicely terminated the session abruptly when he left the commissioners declaring that his assessment of $1,245 on the land and buildings stood as far as he was concerned. The commissioners claim the land and buildings are worth $26,000 according to a statement of Mr. Dugan. Some weeks ago, the commissioners declare, a representative of a credit company called at the court house and said that Mr. Dugan had stated his holdings were worth $26,000 and that he was attempting to negotiate credit upon this basis.

Assessment of $1,245 The commissioners checked the assessment figures at the result of the credit representative and found that eleven acres of land, a dwelling, a 40x60 concrete block building, a 40x60 tile building and a barn were assessed at a total of $1,245. Interested, the commissioners visited the Dugan property and found it to be such a property as would be worth many times the assessed valuation. Mr. Nicely was called in to explain his assessment. Said he, "First of all, I received a letter from the court house saying that the assessments for 1946 had been frozen for 1947. This would freeze this assessment. Second, I think this assessment is a fair one and I will not change it." After a parry of words Mr. Nicely arose and said, "That's the assessment and I won't change it. I don't know what you asked me to come in here for anyway."

Ask Opinion County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., was called in and asked what authority the commissioners had in view of the fact that a letter had been sent to some assessors saying no changes would be made. Mr. McElwee said the commissioners always had the right to correct errors, either up or down and that the commissioners were solely within their rights if they increased the assessment valuation. Commissioner Joseph P. Travers moved the assessment be raised to $6,800 but there was no second to the motion. Commissioner Earl R. Wimer asked what could be done with the assessor if he refused to change the assessment and Mr. McElwee said he could be brought into court for failure to comply. The matter was held in abeyance until early next week when some decision will be reached. There seems little doubt the assessment will be raised sharply, but the matter of doing it is being debated.

Government Gets Intervention Permit In Portal Pay Suit

DETROIT, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Federal Judge Frank A. Picard granted government attorneys permission to intervene in the Mt. Clemens Pottery company portal-to-portal suit. Judge Picard originally issued the ruling on the pottery company's overtime suit, which became the basis for the recent flood of portal-to-portal claims.

Attorney General Tom Clark petitioned for intervention because the U. S. treasury may be liable for return of back taxes to employers forced to pay the portal-to-portal demands which now have passed the two billion dollar mark.

Judge Picard granted the petition but emphasized that he is "settling just one particular law suit".

POSTAL WORKERS WITHDRAW FROM PITTSBURGH C.I.O.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Postal workers in the Pittsburgh Post Office today announced plans to form the United Post Office Workers, a new union, following their withdrawal from the C.I.O. United Public Workers.

Failure of the UPW "to obey the mandate of the 1945 and 1946 conventions of the C.I.O. to refrain from injecting Communist philosophy into the union policy" was given as the reason for the action by Elmer A. C. Holland, president of the local.

Similar action has been taken by UPW Post Office locals in Chicago, Detroit, and Duluth, Minn., Holland said.

Senator Wagner Plans Move For Mediation Board

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Sen. Robert F. Wagner (D) N. Y., father of the National Labor Relations act, announced today that he will reintroduce his 1940 plan for a United States mediation board in labor disputes.

Wagner's announcement was made as moves were underway in the new Congress to ban portal-to-portal pay, outlaw court suits for back wages after one year, prohibit the closed union shop and prevent strikes in public utilities.

At the same time, the Senate Republican conference planned to take up the labor policy problem if the group can sidetrack "House Bilbo" strategy-making long enough.

Wagner's bill would set up within the Labor department a U. S. mediation board composed of three full-time members appointed by the president. Their services could be invoked by the parties, or by either faction, to any labor controversy tending to lead to a labor dispute burdening interstate commerce.

New Castle High's "Whiz Kids" Defeat Ambridge 42 To 38

Inspired "Kids" Upset Favored Valley Quintet

Don Black, Don Watters And Don Spears Lead New Castle Scoring Attack

BEAVER FALLS IS NEXT ON SCHEDULE

New Castle High's inspired "Whiz Kids" basketball team, turned "Giant Killers" last night as they handed a highly favored potential championship Ambridge High quintet a 42 to 38 beating, to cause Section Three circles to turn to the section box today.

The opening game in Section Three's race for the wire, drew a capacity crowd to the Washington High gym, with perhaps 1,000 turned away by the "No More Room" sign. As it was about 1,200 fans sat in on the painful, unexcused, as the over-confident Ambridge passers learned the hard way that the game is never over till the whistle blows.

Coach Bill Douglass got his Section Three baptism, last night. The young mentor knew Section Three was no cinch, he knows now that every league game is going to be hard fought. He knows also that the team that looks like the "Whiz Kids" will have to out-think them and that's going to be a fair order.

Ambridge Leads At Half

It took the New Castle boys a little while to get used to the size of the Ambridge players, but once they had them whittled down to their own size, they applied the brush and gave the valley team a lesson that they will be a long time in forgetting. Ambridge got away to a good start in the first period, led 8 to 7 as the buzzer sounded and clung to a 19 to 16 lead at half-time.

Big Joe Stepanik, the 6 foot 4 inch Ambridge center was the main cog in the Coach Tom Drake attack the first half, dumping in four field goals and a foul for nine points. Watters, Raa and Black did the New Castle scoring.

"Whiz Kids" Roar Back

Roaring into the third period with the cylinders wide open the "Dougless" coached machine started to whittle down the count. They tied the game up at 26-26 when Spears sunk a neat fielder, and took the lead at 28 to 26 when Spears again dumped in a field goal. The end of the third period saw the game tied up tighter than a Christmas package at 29-29 as the buzzer sounded. New Castle won the third period 3 to 10. Ambridge was tiring under the terrific pace.

Apply Finishing Touches

The New Castle "Kids" continued their sensational play in the fourth and final period, giving up the lead to the visitors 30 to 29 then tying up the score at 30-30, and battling it right down to the wire. The score was tied again.

In the final period at 32-32 then the elusive Spears made another field goal that put New Castle in the lead for keeps at 34 to 32.

Don Black, the diminutive New Castle forward, leading scorer on the team was forced out on five personal fouls in the early minutes of the last period. Marcolucci took over. Black got a big ovation for his 13 points contribution. He played a great game, as did Donnie Watters and Don Spears. Knopik was forced out on fouls for Ambridge.

Watters-Spears Ice It

With two minutes left of the game New Castle led 38 to 33. In the final two minutes a badly demoralized Ambridge team couldn't keep up to New Castle as Watters and Spears went to work and put it on "ice". Watters with a couple of fouls and Spears with a field goal, New Castle coasted in with a 42 to 38 count as the game ended amid scenes of wild pandemonium as the "Whiz Kids" pulled the seemingly impossible. New Castle continued good at the foul line getting 10 out of 13. Ambridge had 12 out of 24.

New Castle will continue Section III play at Beaver Falls next Tuesday evening. In the preliminary game the New Castle High Junior Varsity defeated Ambridge Junior Varsity 34 to 29 setting the stage for what was to follow.

Gillom Signs With Cleveland Browns

CLEVELAND, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Horace Gillom, famed negro grid star of Massillon, O., and the nation's leading punter during the past season, was signed today by the Cleveland Browns of the All-America pro football conference.

The big end led the country with an average of over 51 yards per kick for the University of Nevada.

FAIR OR FOUL

LAWTON CARVER

International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The Pacific Coast conference asked for it, and as you probably have noted, they got it.

In beating UCLA by 45 to 14, Illinois started the Big Nine's five-year Rose Bowl pact with what almost literally might be called a boom, lumps attached. Also, arms and adhesive.

The Illinois players did everything but run their coast opponents off the home grounds and seemed to be taking a full windup in that general direction when the famed instrument known as the welcome final gun sounded. It was welcome to the Uelans, that is, Illinois seemed to be having a wonderful time at the moment.

For Good Measure

The latter had scored three last period touchdowns by way of making the victory authoritative, which was good football but no doubt disturbing to the Pacific Coast conference.

This was a sample of the bargain the Pacific Coast has acquired for four more years through the strange arrangement between the two football circuits. What it amounted to was outright gift to the Big Nine of a half share in the Rose Bowl for five years, with the latter dictating the terms.

May Come Back

Perhaps the coast will come back in football in due time and be strong again, but the Big Nine won't get any weaker in the meantime and this kind of a beating could lead to a general breakdown on the part of the coast to dig up some players to avert another such disaster.

It's that sort of thing that intensifies subsidizing and other prevalent evils which make football interesting but about three shades this side of lilly white.

No Set Rule

Whether the Big Nine plays the best football in the land still is open to question, despite widespread opinion to that effect. I think football is pretty much the same everywhere, and that a weak section one year may be the strongest the next.

But for the time being the coast is or has been weak and the Big Nine is about as rugged as ever, with the obvious result to be found in headlines on this last Rose Bowl game.

The Coast conference might have done far better by holding off for awhile on signing up the Big Nine, the latter reportedly was insistent that the deal be closed now or never, but that certainly must be regarded as strictly so much mumble-jumble.

Penny of Moolah

Once the Big Nine showed its interest, it was more than likely to be receptive next year or the year after. There is too much money involved in this particular promotion for a conference to let its interest flag once aroused.

So the Pacific Coast winds up with the Big Nine champs, when in the past the latter wouldn't even go west and in years when toughest, thus did not get this opportunity to sully that once proud coast football.

The Coast conference asked for it and they got the Big Nine and let us hope everybody is happy.

After tonight, the Mountaineers move into New York City to meet St. Francis of Brooklyn in Madison Square Garden Thursday, and then travel to Buffalo Saturday for a game with Canisius.

Cornell university had a student from Shantung, China, named Mr. I. His first name was Fu and his middle name Te.

Record Crowds Saw Pro Games

National Football League Says Over Two Million Saw 1946 Games

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The National Football League's attendance record of 1,918,631 for 1946 paled into insignificance today as 1946 returns catapulted professional football far beyond the two-million mark and definitely into the big business class.

The National league announced a 1946 attendance total of 2,671,696 for 86 contests, a 39.2 per cent increase over the previous year. And this total, of course, does not include attendance figures for the new All American Conference, which made its bow this year.

In addition to 30 non-championship contests, the NFL staged 56 regular contests, 24 of them sell-outs, which attracted 1,950,154 spectators.

Improvement of the Chicago Cardinals and Pittsburgh Steelers, giving the league a better chance, and the return of established stars from service, increased the average attendance for regular season games to 34,824.

Steelers Gain

Chicago's Champion Bears led in total attendance. They set a new record for one NFL club by playing before 766,757 spectators, an average record high of 42,596 per game for 18 games.

The New York Giants set a new all-time high for home attendance with 420,803 for eight games, an average of 52,600. The Giants finished second to the Bears in total attendance with 653,314 in 16 starts.

Pittsburgh, the Cardinals and the Los Angeles Rams made the most surprising gains. Los Angeles played before the largest crowd of the year in August when 87,380 saw the Rams lose to the Colliergians in the Chicago all-star game. The Rams also drew the largest regular season crowd when they met the Bears in Los Angeles before 68,381.

Veek Mails Out Indian Contracts

CLEVELAND, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Bill Veek, dynamic young president of the Cleveland Indians, again jumped the gun today on other American league magnates by sending out 1947 contracts to some 30 tribal athletes.

Although not required under the new player owner agreement to offer terms until Feb. 1, Veek, in his usual manner, did the unusual, saying, "what's the use of waiting?"

Still slated for discussion, however, is the 1947 contract to be offered Fireball Bob Feller, mainstay of the Cleveland hurling staff and generally top-rated pitcher in the major leagues.

Veek and Feller conferred recently, but according to Veek, they "talked only in generalities." The two agreed to meet in Chicago at a later date after Bob returned to his Waukegan, Ill., home.

Feller is expected to come to terms similar to those of last season when he earned nearly $75,000, due mainly to a fat bonus on a Cleveland home attendance clause.

Falcons To Play Fairport Veterans

Sunday afternoon at the Falcon floor the Polish Falcons will meet a strong Fairport V. F. W. team. Game time will be 3 p.m. with a preliminary game carded for 2 p.m.

The Fairport team is one of the strongest teams in northeast Ohio and boast of a center scaling six feet eight inches in height. So far this season the Vets have an undefeated record, having 10 wins to their credit.

COLUMBUS CLUB WINS

The Christopher Columbus basketball team won from the Mustangs last night at the Columbus floor 59 to 56, with Rouzou, Ernie Adamo and Armond Lauro starring for the winners and Howard and Maturro best for the Mustangs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Julio Jimenez, Mexican welterweight, today held a disputed decision over Roman Alvarez, of Brooklyn.

Jimenez won a close verdict in their 10-round feature bout at Madison Square Garden last night. The result was a mild upset.

Two other under-dogs in the betting also triumphed. Johnny Colan, Astoria, N. Y. light-heavyweight, outpointed Joan Thomas, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., heavyweight, in 10 rounds.

Joe Curcio, Newark, N. J., won a 10-round decision over Bee Bee Washington, Washington, D. C., middleweight.

Complete Waste Of Government Funds Charged

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—U. S. Maritime Commission and the War Shipping Administration were charged by a congressional committee with maintaining records in such a "chaotic state" that the government may have sustained serious financial loss.

The committee also condemned as "a complete waste of government funds" the payment of $22,861 through the Human Engineering Co. for a so-called memory course given to shipyard employees.

The house merchant marine committee found in a report that the accounting practices of the two government agencies were "unsound." It added that its investigation disclosed that:

"The accounts do not accurately reflect actual facts and that the result of maintaining incomplete and inaccurate accounts was to jeopardize the financial interests of the government."

Attorney Thinks Client Kidnaped

BALTIMORE, Jan. 4.—(INS)—A Baltimore attorney expressed belief in Federal district court Friday that his client, Miss Josephine Seesney, 30-year-old Dyer (Ind.) nurse, had been kidnaped.

Hyman A. Pressman, the lawyer, told the court he had not heard from the woman since Dec. 20. She was scheduled to come to his office that day to discuss her suit for $16,950 against John Puleo, Washington (D. C.) harmonica player.

Pressman asked the court for an extension of time in filing an answer to the defendant's request for a bill of particulars. He expressed belief that his client had been kidnaped or met with foul play.

Miss Seesney charges Puleo with failing to pay her $75-a-week salary from September, 1942, to November, 1946, when she worked for him as secretary, nurse and adviser.

The suit was filed Dec. 10 when Puleo was appearing in a Baltimore night club.

Scout Leaders Go For 3 Days Camping

Friday afternoon about 5 o'clock the Boy Scout leaders "expedition" with 13 in the party left for their three days camp at the Lawrence county camp location at Rose Point.

There they will occupy a large cabin, fitted up with bunks; they may also be able to have electric light.

The boys made much preparation for the period they would be away from home. Mothers and fathers were called on to help outfit the group for their stay, which they did very heartily.

There were pots and pans and other necessary utensils collected from the various homes, and plenty of groceries; yes and blankets, lots of them, one boy had seven, yet he believed he needed more, as the weather man had said there was going to be "howling" winds from the west and much colder weather.

Of course the boys railed their own cellars and got together a couple of bags of coal. We believe the boys will be comfortable.

Scoutmaster Bill Bollinger and his assistants had all their needs carefully tabulated and checked off before putting off. The outfit included a radio, to keep in contact with the "outside world". The Thayer, Weltz and McConnell automobiles were used for transportation of the personnel and outfit to the camp.

United Effort Must Be Made

Nation's Hangover From War Must Now Be Cured Declares N. A. M. Executive

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—(INS)—National Association of Manufacturers called for a united effort to cure the nation's hangover from war.

Lower prices, lower taxes and higher production with peace on the labor front were prescribed by Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice president of the NAM. He said:

"We cannot sober up after the resource-consuming spree of war unless we all buckle down to helping our form of a free society to produce the needs of the people in goods, in wages, in dividends, in the higher standards of existence."

No Time For Demands "I am sure that saner heads in labor leadership will see that this is no time to demand their 'pound of flesh' from an economy struggling to adjust itself to peace."

"The old bird of business that has laid the golden eggs of progress for America is going to be deadlier than a dodo if organized labor seeks now to cut off the head of the economic goose and suck the vital blood of business in portal-to-portal billions and further inflation through wage increases and higher prices."

Weisenburger declared that "business must work for lower prices, government must work for lower taxes, and labor must work for more production without industry-wide attempts to obtain blanket wage increases."

The NAM executive asserted: "America is ripe for progress. It will be strictly a man-made tragedy if it fails to get it."

Some Talk Of Truman-Farley Ticket In 1948

By JAMES L. KUGALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Jan. 4. — Talk has arisen in political circles that the Democratic ticket in 1948 may be "Truman and Farley."

This talk, now only in the gossip stage, was given added circulation by the publication of a story today that New York State will take the lead in booming James A. Farley as Mr. Truman's running mate.

It was said the movement will be launched at the Jefferson Day dinner in New York in April.

No one knows for sure whether Farley, now a successful and highly-paid soft drink executive, would even be interested.

When Farley's attention was called to the story, he smilingly declined to comment.

It is known, however, that there is a determined effort within the Democratic party to get Farley back into the political arena.

He is recognized as a shrewd organizer and strategist, the man who was in a large measure responsible for the election of the late President Roosevelt to two of his four terms in office.

U.S. Restaurant Menu Represents Forty-Eight States

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The United States Senate restaurant menu Friday represented the 48 states from soup to nuts.

The luncheon menu for Friday, Jan. 3, opening day of the 80th Congress, led off with Massachusetts clam cocktail and wound up with salted Oklahoma pecans.

The Senate restaurant's famous bean soup was listed today as "Senate restaurant Michigan bean soup" at the modest price of 20 cents a bowl.

Hungry senators had their choice of baked Oregon salmon or Kansas chopped sirloin of beef on the 65 cent luncheon.

If they desired to plunge on the first day of the session they could pick roast Vermont Turkey with Kentucky dressing, New Jersey cranberry sauce, Connecticut Brussels sprouts and baked Idaho potato, or baked Tennessee ham with Colorado sauce, North Carolina sweet potatoes and Virginia kale.

Maine lobster ala Newberg and fried Rhode Island chicken with trimmings from other states were also available to tickle senatorial appetites.

Planes Kept At Field

With a number of the graduates of the flight courses at the municipal airport buying planes of their own, the operators of the field, Mr. and Mrs. Findley C. Wilson, have found it necessary to remove the wings from some of the surplus equipment in order to make storage space for the new owners.

New Aeronaics at the field all have heaters, making flying comfortable for the pilot. In case of snow, skis will be used on the training planes.

Those flying higher horsepower aircraft on the commercial course this winter will find the flying a little warmer, as P-26's with hatches will be used instead of the open cockpit type.

Since New Year's little flying has been done at the field because of the dense fog and the rain. The planes have been grounded most of the time.

LURE OF THE CITY
MITCHELL, S. D.—The lure of the city and of all places a fur store—brought disaster to a covote that strayed from his rural haunts. When discovered, the animal was jumping excitedly at a Mitchell store window in which fur coats were displayed.

A bullet from policeman Art Newman's pistol made one more fur available for the display.

Steps Taken To Curb Black Market Rackets In Europe

War Department Launching Plan
To Break Up Practice Involving U. S. Officers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The house military affairs committee reported today that the war department has taken steps to check black market activities in Europe which have involved the "vast majority" of army officers stationed there.

The committee formally approved a report of one of the investigators which found that the war department had inaugurated a currency control program.

As a result, the committee found, "many people who have obviously been living on black market profits will now have to use real money."

The report observed that the new program brought sharp reverses to "black market" profits in which the bottom is hit by a drop in the stock market.

To Check Fortunes
It proposed examination of bank accounts and income tax returns of officers and enlisted men who were stationed in Europe last year "to ascertain the present state of their fortune."

The report charged that both officers and men are "rather promiscuous in their association with German women" and asserted that the war department has to cope with a "serious" venereal disease problem.

The committee found that the war department is creating boards to discipline men from the service who repeatedly contact a venereal disease or are found to be habitual deserters. The report said:

"Already more than 6,000 men have been and are being sent home from the European theater for discharge for these reasons."

The report revealed that the United States supplied Russian occupation forces with engraved plates to print German marks. The Russians, the report said, hold marks at two value, but the United States is paying for them at the rate of 10 cents each.

Bill Would Give Hawaii Statehood
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Senate and house members on Friday introduced a bill authorizing statehood for the territory of Hawaii.

Sen. Knowland (R) Calif., introduced the measure in the senate, while Hawaiian Delegate Farrington and a group of congressmen introduced identical measures in the house.

The bills would authorize Hawaii to take steps necessary to qualify for statehood, and make provisions for the transfer of government responsibilities from the territory to the would-be 49th state.

Farrington announced simultaneously that he would ask the house public lands committee to begin consideration of a measure as soon as it is organized, and hoped that hearings will begin Feb. 1.

He pointed out that statehood for Hawaii has been recommended by President Truman and Secretary of Interior Krug.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 4.—(INS)—Brawny Dane Clark, who used to beg Warners for work and more work, is changing his tune. Dane, who's been kept before the cameras for almost two years steadily, is tired, and he admits it.

He's hoping to get a vacation after he finishes "Deep Valley", but he fears the worst.

"I've an idea that my next will be a prize fight picture", he said. "It's on my schedule for this year and they want to do it right after this one."

That means that instead of a vacation I'll have to go into real training to get ready."

Believe it or not, the thing which gave Mary Astor the most happiness during the Christmas holidays was a washing machine. Her old one was about worn out and the girl who comes in to do the washing was complaining a bit.

Mary was enthusiastic about the new gadget when your reporter talked to her on the set of "The Rich, Full Life" at M-G-M.

"It came Christmas Eve, but it wasn't a Christmas present," Mary said. "I'd ordered it some time ago, but there's nothing I'd rather have received."

Christmas Eve, incidentally, was Mary's wedding anniversary.

The widest eyed spectator at Pasadena's Tournament of Roses parade and the football game was June Alyson. It was the charming little star's first look at either of them.

Her hubby, Dick Powell, who's now busy in Columbia's "Assigned to Treasury", confided to your reporter:

"I hated to buck those crowds, but she was so anxious to go, we went."

The cutest couple in town is Marshall Thompson, who's 21, and Elizabeth Taylor, 15, the prettiest young girl in Hollywood.

Both their mothers go along with them on their dates.

The Richard Hart's first baby, Hillary, has given her parents a surprise.

Only three weeks old today, the youngster is sprouting two teeth.

Dick was a very proud papa when your reporter ran into him on the set of "Green Dolphin Street".

"That's really phenomenal, isn't it?" he said.

Your reporter guesses that it is.

Official Retires

GREENVILLE, Jan. 4.—John L. Beck, traffic manager and purchasing agent of the Greenville plant of the Chicago Bridge and Iron Company, has retired, effective January 1, ending a 35 year relation with the plant.

A dinner honoring the retiring employee was given by fellow employees of the plant and executive officers. Mr. Beck was presented with a set of home workshop tools as a token of the esteem in which he is held by his friends.

Democrats Spent Twice G.O.P. Fund In 1946 Elections

Campaign Reports Are Filed With Clerk Of House At Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—(INS)—The Democratic national committee spent twice as much as the Republican national committee in an unsuccessful effort to retain control of congress in the 1946 elections.

Final campaign reports filed with the clerk of the house revealed that the two national committees expended a total of $2,555,405 in the hotly contested election.

The GOP national committee spent $917,728 on the campaign, compared to $1,737,677 expended by the Democrats. Republican receipts totaled $1,097,404, leaving a GOP balance for the year of $297,676.

The Democrats also ended the year financially in the black. Their national organization began 1946 with a bank balance of $781,294 and received an additional $1,147,870 in contributions during the year, leaving a bank balance Dec. 31 of $141,488.

The GOP finance committee of Pennsylvania filed a report showing expenditures for 1946 of $748,594. It began the year with a balance of $265,566 and received an additional $824,653 during the year in contributions, leaving a balance Dec. 31 of $277,525.

Non-Fiction Demand Increases At Library
Readers Want Psychology, Ethics,
Business Ideas, Or Psycho-Therapy

Seeking an answer to problems, or a clearer definition of their own ideas and purposes, many readers are asking for books on practical psychology, simplified works about ethics, or discussions of better jobs and profitable hobbies, according to Miss Alice Sterling, chief librarian of the New Castle public library.

Non-fiction books are now in circulation almost as much as fiction books, Miss Sterling added.

Some of the more popular ones are: "A Fortune To Share" by Vash Young; "Psychology in Action" by Clawson; "They Sold Themselves" by Howard Stephenson; "Think and Grow Rich"; "Thus Spake Zarathustra" by Frederic Nietzsche; and many others.

Books on psycho-therapy are being taken out, both by returned servicemen who are still trying to straighten out their own ideas, and by their families who want to help and understand these men.

In the Chinese and Japanese tea growing districts, the annual rainfall is something under 100 inches, but heavy fog and high humidity make up in moisture for the lack of rain the growing tea needs.
